

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. It is not a proper use of the public airways in a free and democratic society. Can you please focus on guarding against corrupt maneuvers such as this? Giving a powerful media company the right to give illegal campaign support, on the public airwaves, under the guise of "journalism" is far more damaging and dangerous than catching a glimpse of breast. Please help save our country from hyposcrisy; protect us where it matters.

Thank you.
